COVID19 Policy and Notice

The contents of this policy provide amended terms and conditions which supersede those of our standard booking terms and conditions where applicable.

1. Commitment

Dakota Hotels has been following the COVID19 pandemic very closely and have been utilising this time during the closure to ensure we implement the most stringent possible health and safety measures as we begin to welcome home our valued team and guests.

We are:

- Sincere in our efforts in protecting our team and guests.
- Diligent in ensuring that new regulations and best practice are followed.
- Enthusiastic in making your stay as safe as possible whilst upholding the highest levels of service we are renowned for.

2. Hotel Operation

i. Bedrooms

The ability for guests to stay at a Dakota Hotel with a bedroom booking is subject to change based on Government restrictions in place at the time, as well as health and safety considerations of our guests and team. In the event that we are unable to honour reservations, we will:

- Communicate any changes with you via your booking email.
- Cancel bedroom reservations for bookings made on a flexible rate, at no charge.
- Reschedule bedroom reservations for bookings made on a pre purchase or advanced purchase rate, for a date up to six months after the original date of arrival.*

ii. Bar and Grill

Maximum table houses and household configurations of bookings must comply with current government guidelines in place at the time of the reservation.

We will continue to keep our guests informed of any updates and keep you informed of any changes.

The Hotel will communicate with Guests in advance of their stay in the event of the Bar and/or the Grill being closed, as well as if room service and/or breakfast is being offered. There may be occasions whereby the experience is on a room only basis due to restrictions or demand.

iii. At the time of writing, the Government has imposed a curfew for non-residents being onsite and/or a curfew for the consumption of alcohol which all businesses must adhere to. For updated information on how this might impact your experience, please contact our Reservations team directly.

iv. Tier system

Guests must comply with the restrictions in place at the time of their stay including the restrictions set for the tier which the hotel is based in. By checking in to a hotel, the Guest is confirming that they are complying with the restrictions in place at the time. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Providing proof of essential work travel, where applicable
- Not travelling out with the local authority you live in for leisure purposes, where applicable

For specific guidance on the restrictions, please refer to the applicable Government website or speak to Reservations.

3. Protective Measures

- i. Based on the Government recommendations, we're introducing a number of preventive and protective measures throughout our operation, including:
 - Social distancing measures for a minimum of one metre have been introduced using signage in all of our establishments, for both our team and guests.
 - Foot traffic is being managed by limiting the number of reservations we accept, managing the number of guests allowed into hotels at any given time.
 - In England, from 19th July 2021, it is no longer mandatory for guests to wear face masks however it is preferred that guests do so in all public areas of the property unless at a table currently eating or drinking, or they are medically exempt. At the time of writing, in Scotland it remains mandatory for guests to wear face masks in all public areas of the property unless at a table currently eating or drinking, or they are medically exempt and can provide proof of this.
 - Temperature checks may be performed upon entry into our hotels based on current government guidance and industry practice. The Company reserves the right to deny entry to anyone with a temperature above 38°C. Access to the premises will be denied should you refuse to have your temperature checked whilst the procedure is in place.
 - Hand sanitizer dispensers are available throughout the hotel for use by our guests and our team.
 - Our comprehensive cleaning regimes have been further developed upon following the pandemic and we regularly disinfect surfaces and upholstery using anti-bacterial and virus-killing chemicals/agents.
 - High contact surfaces (handles, elevator buttons, counters, etc.) are disinfected frequently throughout the day.
 - All of our team are provided with personal protective equipment recommended by the government, and have been trained to follow good preventive practices.
 - Access to onsite gyms are closed until further notice.
 - Card payments are encouraged over cash.
 - Physical distancing measures such as signage, encouraging a minimum distance of 1metre, are in place so far reasonably practicable.

- ii. For Hotel Residents:
 - All individual bedroom reservations made up to and including 30th December 2021 can have the date rescheduled up to 3pm the day prior to arrival at no charge*, to allow for flexibility. For group bookings of eight bedrooms and above, please speak with us directly on your amended terms.
 - The hotel will endeavour to minimise the check in time upon arrival to the hotel by:
 - operating a system of electronic registration cards to be completed prior to arrival
 - offering the option of sending a payment link to prepay reservations prior to arrival
 - No items can be placed in the guest bedroom if given by a third party.
 - The airport transfer service provided in our Edinburgh and Glasgow location only, is not applicable until further notice.
 - Turndowns will only be provided to applicable bedrooms on request and only in circumstances whereby no guests are in the room at the time of the employee entering.
 - Rooms will be cleaned using best practice protocols.
 - Room service delivery will be adapted to conform with governmental requirements and only applicable to guests who provide a card payment pre-authorisation on check-in.

- iii. In our Bar and Grill:
 - We have implemented social distancing in our Bar and Grill.
 - We will strictly only provide table service to avoid congestion.

- Card payments machines (PDQ's) will be sanitised between use and we will encourage the use of contactless payments via card and mobile devices where possible.
- All guests are asked to wait to be seated with signage upon entry.
- We may not offer a buffet provision at breakfast based on hygiene guidelines during the outbreak until further notice. In this event, buffet items will however still be available to order.
- Guests have the option of using a QR code to view menus.
- Tables will be set as the guest arrives to ensure items on the table are sanitised.
- Hand sanitiser is available on entry into the Bar and Grill.
- Our team are requested to wear face masks as you are served.

iv. Test & Trace / Test & Protect protocol

Known as Test & Trace in England and Test & Protect in Scotland, we will:

- Fully comply with the initiative by requesting the full name, email address and/or telephone number of all guests aged 16 and over who drink or dine in our hotels.
- Bedroom guests will receive an electronic or paper registration card with a dedicated optional area to include the details of other guests within their bedroom. This data will be stored on the reservation in accordance with our GDPR Privacy Notice.
- All guests coming to our Bar & Grill will have a table reservation made on our booking system, Restaurant Diary, in accordance with our GDPR Privacy Notice.
- The Company reserves the right to refuse entry for any guest who refuses to provide information to comply with Test & Trace / Test & Protect protocol. Applicable charges may apply in accordance with our cancellation terms in this event.
- The Company reserves the right to request identification as proof of name given under this protocol.

4. Guest Responsibilities

We respectfully request that no persons enter Dakota property if they have:

- Personally experienced any symptoms of COVID19 in the preceding 14 days.
- Knowingly been in the presence of any persons who have COVID19 symptoms in the preceding 14 days.
- Personally been diagnosed with COVID19 and have not fully recovered from all symptoms for at least 14 days.
- Been instructed by Test & Trace / Test & Protect to self-isolate at the time of entry.

All guests must adhere to social distancing procedures as far as reasonably practicable at all times and frequently sanitise their hands for their own safety as well as those of our other guests and team.

5. Peace of mind

- i. All bedroom bookings under the pre purchase or advanced purchase rate are permitted to reschedule their booking up to 3pm the day prior to arrival for another date up to six months after the original date of arrival. This will be in place for bookings made with a date of arrival up to and including 30th December 2021.
- ii. *A charge will be applicable if the new date of stay is a higher rate, for the difference between that and the original rate.

In the event that the fire alarm system is triggered by a guest tampering with the fire detector, smoking, or using unauthorised equipment or items including sparklers, candles, and gas burners, the guest will indemnify the Hotel from any liability in respect of any injury to or death of any person, damage to any property or all and any losses howsoever suffered by the Hotel as a result of such actions and others by the guest and from all proceedings, costs, claims and demands in respect of any such liability or alleged liability.

9. Damage by and/or behaviour of guests

We are entitled to recover from a guest, (a) the cost of repairs or replacements of any damage or loss caused by the guest, or their pets, or others from whom they are responsible and (b) loss of revenue caused by a bedroom damaged by a guest being unsellable, at the room only best available rate, until the bedroom can be resold, up to a maximum of 3 nights after the guest leaves the premises, or when the damage was occurred, whichever is the later. Full payment for such damage or loss will be charged to the credit or debit card held on file for the room occupied by the guest concerned.

We also reserve the right to terminate, without compensation or further obligation, the reservation if it is deemed that the guest's behaviour is unsociable, abusive or in any way unacceptable to ourselves or any other guest. In such circumstances the guest accepts that they will be required to immediately leave the premises.

10. Travel and transfers

i. Airport transfer service is subject to availability, it must be pre-booked and is available Monday – Friday, 06:00 – 22:00.

ii. The Hotel cannot be held responsible in any way whatsoever, for any flights or onward travel arrangements missed by guests. For guests using our airport transfer service:

-We will take all reasonably practical actions to pick you up promptly on the arrival of your flight. If, for reasons beyond our control, we are late we will not be held liable for any additional costs the guest may incur.

-We are only at liberty to suggest a booking time for your airport transfer. Should a flight be missed due to delays by our airport transfer vehicle, traffic, an accident or other events outside our control we will not be held liable or responsible in any event.

-If your incoming flight is delayed, we will make every reasonable attempt to re-arrange transport to minimise any inconvenience. We cannot guarantee to be waiting for you, but will endeavour to do so. In the event of a flight delay, please notify the Hotel. To minimise disruption to service, we may subcontract airport transfers.

iii. The Hotel reserves the right to withdraw its complimentary transfer service without prior notice.

11. Lost Property

The Hotel is not responsible for lost, damaged, or stolen personal items. Should any guests lose or leave personal belongings, if recovered, the item will be recorded as 'found'. The Hotel will keep detailed records of all 'found' items and will ship items back at the owner's expense on request. Any items in Lost & Found, which are not claimed within ninety (90) days, will be donated to a local charity or discarded.

12. CCTV

24 hour CCTV cameras are fitted throughout the public areas of the Hotel for the safety of all concerned. By staying at the Hotel, guests agree to be filmed using our CCTV equipment.

13. Car Parking

The Hotel accepts no liability for cars, motorbikes and general property kept in our car park.

14. Loss or Damage to Guest Property

Under the Hotel Proprietors Act 1956, a Hotel Proprietor may in certain circumstances be liable to make good any loss of or damage to Guests' property.

This liability however:

- i. Extends only to the property of Guests who have engaged in sleeping accommodation in the hotel;
- ii. Is limited to £50 for any one article and a total of £100 in the case of property which has been deposited, or offered for deposit for safe custody;
- iii. It does not cover motor cars or other vehicles of any kind or any property left in them, including live animals.

15. Protection of guest data policy

- i. Dakota needs to keep certain information about its guests for the purposes of guest care as well as health and safety compliance and legal obligation. To comply with the law, information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely, and not disclosed to any other person unlawfully. To do this, Dakota must comply with the GDPR. How we achieve this is outlined in our Privacy Policy found on our website www.dakotahotels.co.uk.
- ii. All Dakota employees who process or use any personal information must ensure that they follow these principles at all times. Dakota as a corporate body is the data controller under the GDPR, and the Board is therefore ultimately responsible for its implementation.
- iii. Access to the reservations to amend or cancel will only be granted to persons who can confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number. Exceptions may apply to reservation made through the Global Distribution System.
- iv. Requests for invoices must be made in writing to Reservations and confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number.
- v. It is a common gesture from friends or family of a guest to request that a gift or message be left as a surprise for them in their room. This can be arranged if the requesting party confirms the full guest name and dates of stay. If guests do not wish for Dakota to confirm that you indeed have a booking with us, you must advise this at the time of booking.
- vi. Our Privacy Policy highlights that any accidents, near misses, or alleged food poisoning incidents will be reporting to a third party for further investigation and the guest may be contacted for further information.

16. Fire Arms Statement

Dakota are unable to provide storage facilities for fire arms and under no circumstances should fire arms be left within the Hotel, or grounds by a guest. Failure to comply with this requirement and resulting consequences will be the sole responsibility of the offending guest. Therefore, no liability can be accepted regarding the transport of storage of fire arms.

17. Use of Gym / Fitness Facilities

a. If your answer is yes to any of the questions below, the Hotel is unable to permit you use of the gym / fitness facilities on property to safeguard your own health and wellbeing:

- Has your doctor ever said that you have a heart condition and that you should only do physical activity recommended by a doctor?
- Do you feel pain in your chest when you do physical activity, or within the past month, have you ever had chest pain when you were not doing physical activity?
- Do you lose your balance because of dizziness or do you ever lose consciousness?
- Do you or have you ever suffered from diabetes or epilepsy?
- Do you have a bone or a joint problem that could be made worse by a change in your physical activity?
- Is your doctor currently prescribing drugs (for example, water pills) for blood pressure or heart condition?

- Do you know of any other reasons at present why you should limit or delay physical activity?
- Are you feeling unwell due to a temporary illness or pregnant?
- b. The Company assumes no liability for persons undertaking physical activity. If you are in any doubt regarding any of the questions above, you are responsible for consulting your doctor or physician prior to activity.
- c. By entering our fitness facilities, you are agreeing to have read, understood and met the guidelines for use listed above.
- d. Only current resident aged 18 or above are permitted to use the gym / fitness suite.
- e. The Company reserves the right to remove this feature / facility at any time.

18. Electrical Equipment

Guests wishing to bring their own electrical equipment for use within their room are reminded that in the UK, the declared voltage and tolerance for an electricity supply is 230 volts -6%, +10%. Guests are responsible for ensuring their own equipment is safe to use (has passed a Portable Appliance Test {PAT}). The guest will be responsible for any and all damage to hotel property and infrastructure resulting from a faulty device being connected to the hotels mains supply. All personal electrical or electronic devices that are brought in to the hotel are used entirely at the owner's risk. The hotel will not be responsible for any damage to such appliances under any circumstances.

19. Third Party Marketing

- i. Third parties are not authorised to market the Dakota brand in any form without written authorisation from the Company.
- ii. Experiences and credit including but not limited to, overnight stays, gift vouchers, and dining are non-transferable. As such, are not authorised to be included as part of a prize, competition, giveaway, or sold package without written authorisation from the company.
- iii. Images, marketing material, and company logo are the intellectual property of Dakota Hospitality Limited and are not authorised for use or publishing by any other company without written authorisation from the company.

20. 'Force Majeure'

We regret that we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where your stay or experience with the Hotel is prevented or affected by 'Force Majeure'. In these booking terms and conditions, 'Force Majeure' is defined as any event which we could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include sleep disturbance from fellow guests, disturbance from emergency evacuations, fire, adverse weather conditions, industrial dispute, and all other events outside of our control.

Note: The Hotel reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time.

14. Protection of guest data policy

i Dakota needs to keep certain information about its guests for the purposes of guest care as well as health and safety compliance and legal obligation. To comply with the law, information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely, and not disclosed to any other person unlawfully. To do this, Dakota must comply with the GDPR. How we achieve this is outlined in our Privacy Policy found on our website www.dakotahotels.co.uk.

ii. All Dakota employees who process or use any personal information must ensure that they follow these principles at all times. Dakota as a corporate body is the data controller under the GDPR, and the Board is therefore ultimately responsible for its implementation.

iii. Access to the reservations to amend or cancel will only be granted to persons who can confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number. Exceptions may apply to reservation made through the Global Distribution System.

iv. Requests for invoices must be made in writing to Reservations and confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number.

v. It is a common gesture from friends or family of a guest to request that a gift or message be left as a surprise for them in their room. This can be arranged if the requesting party confirms the full guest name and dates of stay. If guests do not wish for Dakota to confirm that you indeed have a booking with us, you must advise this at the time of booking.

vi. Our Privacy Policy highlights that any accidents, near misses, or alleged food poisoning incidents will be reporting to a third party for further investigation and the guest may be contacted for further information.

15. Fire Arms Statement

Dakota we are unable to provide storage facilities for fire arms and under no circumstances should fire arms be left within the Hotel, or grounds by a guest. Failure to comply with this requirement and resulting consequences will be the sole responsibility of the offending guest. Therefore, no liability can be accepted regarding the transport or storage of fire arms.

This liability however: a) Extends only to the property of Guests who have engaged in sleeping accommodation in the hotel; b) Is limited to £50 for any one article and a total of £100 in the case of property which has been deposited, or offered for deposit for safe custody.

16. Protection of guest data policy

- i. Dakota needs to keep certain information about its guests for the purposes of guest care as well as health and safety compliance and legal obligation. To comply with the law, information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely, and not disclosed to any other person unlawfully. To do this, Dakota must comply with the GDPR. How we achieve this is outlined in our Privacy Policy found on our website www.dakotahotels.co.uk.
- ii. All Dakota employees who process or use any personal information must ensure that they follow these principles at all times. Dakota as a corporate body is the data controller under the GDPR, and the Board is therefore ultimately responsible for its implementation.
- iii. Access to the reservations to amend or cancel will only be granted to persons who can confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number. Exceptions may apply to reservation made through the Global Distribution System.
- iv. Requests for invoices must be made in writing to Reservations and confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number.
- v. It is a common gesture from friends or family of a guest to request that a gift or message be left as a surprise for them in their room. This can be arranged if the requesting party confirms the full guest name and dates of stay. If guests do not wish for Dakota to confirm that you indeed have a booking with us, you must advise this at the time of booking.
- vi. Our Privacy Policy highlights that any accidents, near misses, or alleged food poisoning incidents will be reporting to a third party for further investigation and the guest may be contacted for further information.

17. Electrical Equipment

Guests wishing to bring their own electrical equipment for use within their room are reminded that in the UK, the declared voltage and tolerance for an electricity supply is 230 volts -6%, +10%. Guests are responsible for ensuring their own equipment is safe to use (has passed a Portable Appliance Test {PAT}). The guest will be responsible for any and all damage to hotel property and infrastructure resulting from a faulty device being connected to the hotels mains supply. All personal electrical or electronic devices that are brought in to the hotel are used entirely at the owner's risk. The hotel will not be responsible for any damage to such appliances under any circumstances.

18. Fire Arms Statement

Dakota are unable to provide storage facilities for fire arms and under no circumstances should fire arms be left within the Hotel, or grounds by a guest. Failure to comply with this requirement and resulting consequences will be the sole responsibility of the offending guest. Therefore, no liability can be accepted regarding the transport or storage of fire arms.

19. Third Party Marketing

- i. Third parties are not authorised to market the Dakota brand in any form without written authorisation from the Company.
- ii. Experiences and credit including but not limited to, overnight stays, gift vouchers, and dining are non-transferable. As such, are not authorised to be included as part of a prize, competition, giveaway, or sold package without written authorisation from the company.
- iii. Images, marketing material, and company logo are the intellectual property of Dakota Hospitality Ltd and are not authorised for use or publishing by any other company without written authorisation from the company.

20. 'Force Majeure'

We regret that we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where your stay or experience with the Hotel is prevented or affected by 'Force Majeure'. In these booking terms and conditions,

'Force Majeure' is defined as any event which we could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include sleep disturbance from fellow guests, disturbance from emergency evacuations, fire, adverse weather conditions, industrial dispute, and all other events outside of our control.

Note: The Hotel reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time.

This includes guests with limited mobility, and sight or hearing impairments, as well as children aged below 16.

c) Evacuation caused by behaviour

In the event that the fire alarm system is triggered by a guest tampering with the fire detector, smoking, or using unauthorised equipment or items including sparklers, candles, and gas burners, the guest will indemnify the Hotel from any liability in respect of any injury to or death of any person, damage to any property or all and any losses howsoever suffered by the Hotel as a result of such actions and others by the guest and from all proceedings, costs, claims and demands in respect of any such liability or alleged liability.

11. Guide dogs

Guests with guide dogs agree to abide by the following guidelines:

i. Guests are required to control noise made by the dog to ensure that other guests are not disturbed.

ii. Dogs that constitute a nuisance to other occupants of the Hotel may subject their owner to any other charges due to lost revenue incurred by the Hotel.

iii. There must be a 'Relaxing' sign on the door if the dog is loose in the room, in which case your room will not be serviced.

iv. We will not be responsible for the pet getting loose if the 'Relaxing' sign is not displayed.

v. It is the responsibility of the guest to immediately clean up after their pets.

vi. Only guide dogs are permitted in food serving areas.

vii. We will endeavour to allocate a wheelchair accessible bedroom to allow for additional floor space.

12. Damage by and/or behaviour of guests

We are entitled to recover from a guest, (a) the cost of repairs or replacements of any damage or loss caused by the guest, or their pets, or others from whom they are responsible and (b) loss of revenue caused by a bedroom damaged by a guest being unsellable, at the room only best available rate, until the bedroom can be resold, up to a maximum of 3 nights after the guest leaves the premises, or when the damage was occurred, whichever is the later. Full payment for such damage or loss will be charged to the credit or debit card held on file for the room occupied by the guest concerned. We also reserve the right to terminate, without compensation or further obligation, the reservation if it is deemed that the guest's behaviour is unsociable, abusive or in any way unacceptable to ourselves or any other guest. In such circumstances the guest accepts that they will be required to immediately leave the premises.

13. Lost Property

The Hotel is not responsible for lost, damaged, or stolen personal items. Should any guests lose or leave personal belongings, if recovered, the item will be recorded as 'found'. The Hotel will keep detailed records of all 'found' items and will ship items back at the owner's expense on request. Any items in Lost & Found, which are not claimed within ninety (90) days, will be donated to a local charity or discarded.

14. CCTV

24 hour CCTV cameras are fitted throughout the public areas of the Hotel for the safety of all concerned. By staying at the Hotel, guests agree to be filmed using our CCTV equipment.

15. Loss or Damage to Guest Property

Under the Hotel Proprietors Act 1956, a Hotel Proprietor may in certain circumstances be liable to make good any loss of or damage to Guests' property. This liability however: a) Extends only to the property of Guests who have engaged in sleeping accommodation in the hotel; b) Is limited to £50 for any one article and a total of £100 in the case of property which has been deposited, or offered for deposit for safe custody.

16. Protection of guest data policy

i Dakota needs to keep certain information about its guests for the purposes of guest care as well as health and safety compliance and legal obligation. To comply with the law, information must be collected and used fairly, stored safely, and not disclosed to any other person unlawfully. To do this, Dakota must comply with the GDPR. How we achieve this is outlined in our Privacy Policy found on our website www.dakotahotels.co.uk.

ii. All Dakota employees who process or use any personal information must ensure that they follow these principles at all times. Dakota as a corporate body is the data controller under the GDPR, and the Board is therefore ultimately responsible for its implementation.

iii. Access to the reservations to amend or cancel will only be granted to persons who can confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number. Exceptions may apply to reservation made through the Global Distribution System.

iv. Requests for invoices must be made in writing to Reservations and confirm the full guest name, dates of stay, and Dakota 9 digit confirmation number.

v. It is a common gesture from friends or family of a guest to request that a gift or message be left as a surprise for them in their room. This can be arranged if the requesting party confirms the full guest name and dates of stay. If guests do not wish for Dakota to confirm that you indeed have a booking with us, you must advise this at the time of booking.

vi. Our Privacy Policy highlights that any accidents, near misses, or alleged food poisoning incidents will be reporting to a third party for further investigation and the guest may be contacted for further information.

17. Electrical Equipment

Guests wishing to bring their own electrical equipment for use within their room are reminded that in the UK, the declared voltage and tolerance for an electricity supply is 230 volts -6%, +10%. Guests are responsible for ensuring their own equipment is safe to use (has passed a Portable Appliance Test {PAT}). The guest will be responsible for any and all damage to hotel property and infrastructure resulting from a faulty device being connected to the hotels mains supply. All personal electrical or electronic devices that are brought in to the hotel are used entirely at the owner's risk. The hotel will not be responsible for any damage to such appliances under any circumstances.

18. Fire Arms Statement

Dakota are unable to provide storage facilities for fire arms and under no circumstances should fire arms be left within the Hotel, or grounds by a guest. Failure to comply with this requirement and resulting consequences will be the sole responsibility of the offending guest. Therefore, no liability can be accepted regarding the transport or storage of fire arms.

19. Third Party Marketing

- i. Third parties are not authorised to market the Dakota brand in any form without written authorisation from the Company.
- ii. Experiences and credit including but not limited to, overnight stays, gift vouchers, and dining are non-transferable. As such, are not authorised to be included as part of a prize, competition, giveaway, or sold package without written authorisation from the company.
- iii. Images, marketing material, and company logo are the intellectual property of Dakota Hospitality Ltd and are not authorised for use or publishing by any other company without written authorisation from the company.

20. 'Force Majeure'

We regret that we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where your stay or experience with the Hotel is prevented or affected by 'Force Majeure'. In these booking terms and conditions, 'Force Majeure' is defined as any event which we could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include sleep disturbance from fellow guests, disturbance from emergency evacuations, fire, adverse weather conditions, industrial dispute, and all other events outside of our control.

Note: The Hotel reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions at any time.
